Summary of reasons for decision:

Nineteen computer image printouts were the subject of this review. The majority of them depict a range of airbrushed paintings of children, and in some instances elfin children, engaged in explicit sexual activity including anal intercourse and fellatio, with men, older children and in one instance a woman. Two if the printouts depict explicit sexual activity between the television cartoon characters, the Simpsons.

Each publication falls within s3(2)(a) of the Act because at the very least it tends to promote or support the exploitation of children or young persons for sexual purposes. All the publications are therefore classified as objectionable.
